of trains. A thrust has been given to expeditiously complete the capacity enhancement works so as to create additional capacity for movement of trains.

Crime in trains

*513. SHRI RAM NATH KOVIND:
SHRI S.S. AHLUWALIA:

Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that crime in trains has been on the rise during the recent past;

(b) the details of complaints registered by RPF/GRP and prosecution cases instituted based thereon, railway zone-wise during the last five years till 31st December, 2004; and

(c) whether any additional steps are being taken, particularly for identification of the vulnerable rail routes, for augmenting safety of passengers, during the last one year?

THE MINISTER OF RAILWAYS (SHRI LALU PRASAD): (a) and (b) No, Sir. According to Entry No. 2 of the State List of the Constitution of India. 'Police' (including Railways and village Police), is a State subject Prevention of crime, registration of cases, their investigation and maintenance of law and order in Railway premises as well as on running trains are, therefore, the statutory responsibility of the State Police. The State Police have a separate wing called the Government Railway Police (GRP) for dealing with all matters relating to law and order on the Railways. Prevention and detection of crime is the constitutional responsibility of the State Governments, and as such, Ministry of Railways has to depend largely on them for control of crime over Railways.

However, the information pertaining to complaints registered by Government Railway Police of the State Governments and prosecution of offenders during the last five years reveal that the overall crime in trains has decreased. During the year 2004, i.e. under the head of Murder, Dacoity, Robbery, Rape & Theft of passengers' belongings, 7184 cases were registered out of which 1893 offenders were prosecuted as compared to registration of 7499 cases and prosecution of 1923 offenders during the year.2003. A Statement showing the details of such cases registered and persons prosecuted over each zonal railways during the last five years f.e. 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003 & 2004 is given in Statement-I (See below). The cases of crime on railways are reported to, registered and investigated by the Government Railway Police of the concerned State Government.

In addition to the above Indian Penal Code (IPC) Crimes, Railway Protection Force has also prosecuted under the Railways Act. The details of persons prosecuted, convicted and fine realized from them is given in Statement-I I. (See below)

From July 2004 to March 2005, 90 cases of drugging, 151 cases of luggage lifting. 45 cases of possession of illegal arms, 51 cases of gold chain/mangal sutra snatching, 222 cases of charas/ganja smuggling and 261 cases of other IPC offences were detected by RPF over the Railways and handed over to the Government Railway Police. In addition, 832 FIRs were accepted from victim passengers and handed over to Government Railway Police for expeditious registration of offences and enquiry. RPF have also rescued 131 minor girls and boys from Railway Stations and trains and handed them over to either their parents or NGOs.

(c) To provide better security to the travelling passengers in trains and passenger areas, the RPF Act, 1957 and the Railways Act, 1989 have been amended to enable the Railways, through the RPF, to effectively supplement the efforts of the State Governments in controlling crime on the Railways. The Railway Protection Force staff are being deployed to escort many trains and deployed in the passenger area to augment the efforts of the State Government. RPF has also been empowered to deal with the minor offences affecting the train operations such as Alarm chain pulling, roof travel, touting, ticket less travel, unauthorized entry etc. (except Sabotage related offences under Sections 150 to 152) amending the Railways Act w.e.f. July 2004. The objective was to ensure that the State Police (Government Railway Police) get more man power and time to handle heinous offences such as Murder, Dacoity, Robbery, Rape etc. including Sabotage and Train Wrecking, under the provisions of Indian Penal Code, the Railways Act and other laws of the land.

The position in the sections, trains and stations affected by crime is periodically reviewed in the co-ordination meetings held by the officers of the Railways with the State Police. In these Meetings, the situation is reviewed and remedial measures taken accordingly. The deployment of staff is modified depending upon the situation and trains from time to time. Whenever there is a flare-up of violent incidents in any section, all-out efforts are made in co-ordination with the State Police to control the situation, by actively assisting them with additional man power and other resources. In addition to have better liaison, mobility and coordination in effectively supplementing the efforts cf State Governments in controlling crime, the Railway Protection Force has been equipped with additional road vehicles; communication equipments and modern sophisticated and effective weapons (5.56 mm INSAS rifles, carbines and pistols).

From July 2004, after amendment of RPF Act out of its total sanctioned strength of 66,170, which includes 658 lady constables, Railway Protection Force is providing on an average of 1,134 escort parties per day in affected trains, in co-ordination with the State Governments, for which an average of 3,431 staff are deployed. In addition, 557 stations on average are being provided security by Railway Protection Force with deployment of approximately 3,008 personnel daily. These deployments are in addition to 2103 Government Railway Police (GRP) personnel deployed on trains and 4863 personnel deployed on the railway premises, in order to further strengthen the security. As a result of the above measure 3237 trains are being escorted by either Railway Protection Force (RPF) or Government Railway Police (GRP). The offenders apprehended by RPF staff are forwarded to the concerned Government Railway Police (GRP) with detailed report regarding the offence for registration of cases and further legal action. The entire Railway system is thus covered by the Railway Protection Force and the State Police.
